Verse of the Week

"But you must remain faithful to the things you have been taught. You know they are true, for you know you can trust those who taught you. 15 You have been taught the holy Scriptures from childhood, and they have given you the wisdom to receive the salvation that comes by trusting in Christ Jesus. 16 All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. 17 God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work."

2 Timothy 3: 14-17

Kryptonite

Kryptonite is a substance from Superman's home planet. When he drew near to it, he would lose all his superpowers and become weak even weaker than a normal man

So my question is, what is your kryptonite? I know what mine is. I think I have more than one, what is yours? Is it doubt, insecurity, porn, jealousy, anger, self-sabotage, procrastination, lying, stealing etc. It can be anything! But one thing that is for sure is that sin is our universal kryptonite, as you may have already noticed, the theme that runs across the potential kryptonites mentioned above is the fact that they are different forms of sin.

WHAT IS SIN?

Sin is essentially when we fall short of God's standards (Romans 3:23) because we are still conditioned to carry out sinful earthly acts that lurk within us (Colossians 3:5-6). This then leads to separation from Christ (Isaiah 59:2).

Sometimes, us Christians set ourselves. Let's pause here, have you noticed that I said "set ourselves" unrealistic goals where we deceive ourselves into thinking that we can fight against sin alone. Without the help of others and even without the help of God. Yeah, I know. Crazy right? But it's true, we do this by hiding and denying the fact that we are living in sin. We forget that God knows everything and that even though he has the right to do so, he won't judge us. Instead, because we are so ashamed and begin to judge ourselves and eventually believe that everyone else will follow suit. As a result, we continue to live in our shame whereas the kryptonite remains, intensifies and becomes a bigger binding problem.

People who conceal their sins will not prosper; but if they confess and turn from them they will receive mercy (Proverbs 28:13)

Look at yourself, and be honest. Don't lie to yourself. Respect yourself enough and be real. Recognise your faults because the most damaging thing you can ever do is ignore your kryptonite because this will make you weaker. Instead, acknowledge your kryptonite and if you can't tell anyone else tell God. He is always there to listen and help you work through it. The first step to overcoming and killing these kryptonites is to acknowledge and recognise them, and we can figure it out from there.

So the take home message for this post is "What is your kryptonite?". And from here we will learn how to kill these kryptonites so that we can be the effective, strong and courageous me
