FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Intentional living in Christ

Text: Luke 14:25-34; 9:57-62

Other relevant passages: Romans 12:1-21; Ephesians 5:1-33

I feel like our journey through the book of Ephesians have been about how or why we've got to live intentionally in Christ. In summary, here are a few things we learnt.

Chapter 1: We have spiritual blessings in Christ.

Chapter 2: We (the church, Jews and Gentiles) are united in Christ; fellow citizens and not aliens.

Chapter 3: Paul prayed that we have insight and understand the depth of God's love.

Chapter 4: We (the church) must live in unity, tell each other the truth and be driven by that truth.

Chapter 5: We must live purposefully, follow God's example and not live as fools.

Intentional living involves a conscious choice. It means we've made a decision that other alternatives are not options. Jesus made this clear in Luke 14:25-34, teaching his disciples about making sure the cost of following him is considered first. This is because we must be disciplined and committed before we can be a disciple; no point if we're not (Luke 9:62).

Discipline comes from the Latin word for pupil: discipulus. It is also the source of the word disciple, described as "a follower of Jesus Christ in his lifetime". An example of what can happen when the cost of being a "follower of Christ" is not considered is in John 6:22-69. The bible said many disciples left because Jesus told them: "unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you cannot have eternal life" (John 6:53; 66). They couldn't understand what he was saying and weren't prepared to stick around to find out. Peter on the other hand have clearly decided at some point there was no better place to be. He responded to Jesus giving the rest of them a chance to leave too, with the now classic "Lord, to whom would we go?" (John 6:68).

In addition to what we learnt last week, the following may help in making our decision:

1. Intentional living must start with faith in God. Do we believe that God exists (Heb 11:6) and do we believe like Peter that Christ is "the Holy One of God"?
2. Our sense of right and wrong must have its root in the constant renewing of our minds (Rom 12:1-2). We cannot be neither in nor out or that could mean we haven't decided yet (Luke 9:62).
3. We must be humble and crucify self; based on an understanding that our lives have been purchased by the blood of Christ (1 Cor 6:19-20; Gal 2:20; Rom 6:6-7; Eph 4:22-23).
4. We must be an example for others and our brother's keeper (1 Cor 10:23-33). 2 Corinthians 5:18-20 tells us we must be ambassadors of Christ.
5. We must be prayerful. 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 tells us it should be like breathing to us. Jesus prayed all the time, even though Philippians 2:6 said he is God; so much so his disciples finally asked him to teach them to pray. We must be deliberate about it because it is part of being disciplined and being a disciple, a form of service, an act of obedience and a way of communicating with God and receiving answer from him or solutions to our problems (Jeremiah 33:3; 2 Chro 7:14). It also gives us comfort, power and confidence and can be therapeutic.

We may be thinking, like those disciples, that it is too great a sacrifice. But the beauty of following Christ is that he's prepared to take our yoke upon himself (Matt 11:28-30). So when he says "hate everyone else ... even your own life" (Luke 14:26), he's really telling us to live by faith in him, completely (Gal 2:20).

Bottom line:

Living intentionally for Christ implies we've considered associative costs. If we haven't yet, now is the time to. Also, becoming followers of Christ means we hand over our burdens. Jesus said his burden is light (Matt 11:30). Believe him and let him take yours off you.
