VERSE(S) OF THE DAY

Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see ... And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

Hebrews 11:1; 6 (NIV)

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The purpose of God's grace on the church today

Text: Ephesians 3:6-10

What is grace? Growing up in Africa, the phrase "by God's grace" is said all the time in response to practically everything. Consequently, it's probably lost some impact. A search via Google found definitions describing grace:

- as the nature of God's love
- as unmerited favour
- as A gift to the body
- through God's attributes e.g. love, character etc.

Defining grace through God's attributes struck a chord. For example, if we replace grace in the above title with God's attributes, we may be able to appreciate the essence of grace. Our standing in Christ and how much we know him may also inform our understanding because none of us is exempt from sin (Psa 51:5).

Let's think back to who we were when we were in sin and without Christ, and compare that with who we are now. We're saved by grace (Eph 2:8). It is a privilege to be saved without having to work for it and regardless of who we are.

Having an understanding of the endless treasure we have in Christ may also help us to understand what grace is. In Ephesians 6:6-10, Paul identified grace as the basis of his calling. It's not about riches or accolades or property or money. It's about our identity in Christ – the fact that we are vessels for Christ. God owns us and he's all we have.

We see this in Paul's life. While busy persecuting Christians, God saved, called and used him. It's the same with us. We've received the same gospel of Christ. Our past doesn't matter, neither does who we are. Just like Paul, we share in the same inheritance with Christ. We must understand that's a privilege and that should make us humble.

What is the good news?

For answer we can look at John 3:16. God provided a way for us to be free from the penalties of sin through Jesus (John 14:6). Also, our salvation doesn't stop once saved. It is everlasting, and when we experience grace and understand how wonderful it is to know Christ, we must seize opportunities to share him with others. Good news must be shared (Psa 66:8) in diverse ways as God leads us.

If someone asks us for £50m to live forever, wouldn't we pay if we can afford it? How much more when God gave his only son to us freely? So as we get, we give and don't hold back. As for the church, it is about us as individuals and as a body. It is about unity, fellowship, worship, evangelism and so on. It is about sharing, with each other and with God. We must express and share the beauty and manifold wisdom of God with each other and others around us (Rom 12:6).

Bottom line:

What gift has God embedded in you for ministry and how are you sharing it with others to showcase his amazing grace. May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen. (2 Cor 13:14).
