FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Portraits of Jesus: A hope and a future

Text: Habakkuk 2:1-3

Habakkuk questioned God (Hab 1:1-17). First he asked about the unfairness in the society. After God responded, he complained that the cure seemed worse than the problem. Then he said he would stand watch and wait for a response (Hab 2:1).

Like Habakkuk, we may have several questions for God, especially at this time and this year, and that's okay. The scripture is full of questions (Matthew 11:3; Acts 1:6). For example, we may want to know why something has or hasn't happened. God's response to Habakkuk was to wait even longer, referring him to the future (Hab 2:2-3).

"Write the vision," God said to Habakkuk, "and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time..."

The same thing happened to Jeremiah. In Jeremiah 29:11-14, God assured the prophet his thoughts for him was for "a future and a hope" and King James translation called that "an expected end." God was encouraging us to the future.

So did the Queen in her message this year. She ended her speech as follows:

"Even on the darkest night, there's a hope of a due dawn."

~ Queen Elizabeth II

So, whatever our questions about this year and any challenges we may have faced, the good news is there's always a hope of a better tomorrow. In 2 Corinthians 4:17-18, Paul said:

"For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory ... For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Bottom line:

Be confident that 2021's going to be better and there's hope (Luke 21:25-28).
