FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Are you still praying?

Text: 1 Samuel 3:1-4

The bible says in the last days, people will be boastful, proud, scoffing at God, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful and so on (2 Tim 3:1-4). We may agree we are in perilous times right now, and if so, there's no better time to pray. In today's text, the bible recorded what happened to a young Samuel, while serving Eli, "before the lamp of God went out in the tabernacle". This suggest that at some point, the lamp went out, which must have been a gradual process, until it went out completely.

In Leviticus 6:13, the people of Israel were instructed not to let the fire in the temple ever go out. Yet, on this occasion, they allowed it to. Why is that? We are commanded to pray without ceasing, and prayer is one way of communicating with God. When we're going through challenges, the devil often want to stop us praying? But we should actually pray more at those times. So, this morning we must ask ourselves if the light of our prayer life is still burning as strong as it should be.

Why do we pray?

- Prayer is a tool against sin, to enter the presence of God (Psa 24:3-4; Rom 6:12).
- Prayer is a tool for warfare, to fight for the will of God to be done (2 Cor 10:4-5).
- Prayer is a tool to subdue our flesh and allow us to humble ourselves (2 Chro 7:14).
- Prayer is a tool for petition, to ask God for what we want (Matt 7:7-8).
- Prayer allows us to be dependent on God (Psa 121:1-2).

The sons of Eli were corrupt and more focused on their own affairs (1 Sam 2:12-13). This may explain how they eventually allow the fire to burn out in the temple. Sometimes, we become too familiar with God that we take him too lightly and grow nonchalant too. We draw away gradually, until we're too far to hear him.

Sometimes we draw away because we've been praying about something for so long, and we begin to believe God is not able to answer or prayer. We give up, just like Eli (1 Sam 3:18). We become discouraged and distressed (Psa 55:22; 41:10; 1 Sam 30:6) or we may be too busy for God. If we're too busy for God, we may want to consider what we should let go of. Be deliberate about renewing your connection with God and work on it with diligence (Lk 18:1; 1 Thess 5:16-18; Prov 6:10-11; 22:29) with the Holy Spirit's help (Rom 8:26).

Bottom line:

God values our prayer and he looks forward to spending time with us (Pro 3:5-6; Matt 11:28-30). We must check to see if we're lukewarm in our prayer walk, because it is God's will that we communicate / commune with him always (1 Thess 5:16-18).
