God's master plan

Text: Colossians 2:1-3

Last week we learnt that Christ in us is the hope of glory and that we need to be convinced and remind ourselves of that all the time, so much so that we develop a muscle memory of the knowledge. In our text today, Paul expressed the desire that we understand the mystery of God's plan for us which is Christ. There's a discovery and learning process implied in these texts. In other words, we need to understand Christ is God's mysterious plan for us.

Having a plan is important for most things, getting a job, career progression and life in general. Lack of progress or achievement are often a result of not having a plan or goals. These texts tell us that God have a plan for each of us. None of us know the plan for some else's life. We may get a glimpse sometimes or an insight, but only God knows the plan he has for each life. It is therefore crucial that we're not ignorant of God's plan for our lives or rely on what someone else, who could really have partial knowledge, tells us.

The bible tells us we're all led by the spirit of God and can learn about God's plan for us (Rom 8:14). We should also know that every plan of God is for good (Jer 29:11). It is also an exciting plan and not boring or dull (1 Cor 2:9). Today's text takes that further, telling us it is Christ. In summary, that's because in him lies the hidden "treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Col 2:3). Wisdom is described as those mature and able to distinguish between good and evil, and not the wisdom of man (1 Cor 1:15-25; 2:4-8; 3:2; Heb 5:14).

The same goes for knowledge. It is that which can only be imparted by the Holy Spirit. That's why Jesus told Peter only the Holy Spirit could've given him the knowledge of who Jesus is (Matt 16:13-19; Jn 16:13). It is a knowledge we gain through extraordinary means and not from human deductions. An insider knowledge that doesn't come from anyone and can only be from God.

We can see this in the life of Paul and at certain points in our lives, we need this knowledge. We also need this knowledge to know who God really is (Phil 3:10). Jesus emphasised this to a couple of disciples after he was resurrected, on their way to Emmaus (Lk 24:25-27). In many ways, we see this knowledge threading through the book of John.

Of all the Gospels, the book of John stands out as an in-depth revelation of who Jesus is. In John 8:12, he is the light that can see beyond the physical (2 Cor 4:17). In John 14:6, he is the way, the truth and the life. In John 11:25, he is resurrection and the life. In John 6:35, he is the bread. In John 10:9-16, he is the door or gatekeeper. In John 14 and 15, he is the good shepherd. In Revelations 22:13, he is the alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

Bottom line:

God's plan for us, though mysterious is good and revealed to us through Christ Jesus and the Holy Spirit. We need Jesus's divine wisdom and knowledge to understand and live in God's plan for us. That's when the light afflictions make no difference to us, because we know they're not the end and only working for us "a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" (2 Cor 4:17; Psa 23:1-6).
