FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

God's amazing provision for us

Text: John 21:1-17

This is a time to be thankful for what Christ has done for us, especially as we celebrate. In the book of 2 Peter 2, Peter was talking about false shepherds when he said they love to indulge in evil pleasures, lure unstable people into sin and are well trained in deceit (2 Peter 2:12-14). In Philippians 3:19, Paul said their god is their belly. In other words, they think of themselves first and while they promise freedom, they themselves are slaves to sin.

It was said of Jesus that he was a man like us, but without sin (Heb 4:15). He had nothing to gain and always put us first. In the book of John, we can see how much time Jesus spent thinking and praying for us, crowning it all by laying down his life for us. Even so, the disciples forgot all of these after he resurrected. They went back to fishing and like before (Lk 5:5), the caught no fish (Jn 21:5).

Jesus showed up again and again to call them back (Jn 21:14). He first told them where to catch fish, so many and yet, the net wasn't broken (Jn 21:6; 11). Then he made breakfast for them (Jn 21:12). Finally, he asked Peter to feed others, as he just fed them (Jn 21:15-17). Everything God did is to provide for us and meet our needs. He made himself poor so we may be rich (2 Cor 8:9). He died so that we can live (2 Cor 5:15).

Peter took this very serious later in his ministry and charged the shepherds to watch over the flock of God unselfishly, sacrificially (1 Pet 5:1-4). God has made provision for everything we need. Take advantage of it and be secure in the knowledge that you don't need anything else. Think of the parable of the prodigal son (Lk 15:11-32). The father promised everything he had to his children and kept that promise, even to a fault just like God do for us, every single day (Lam 3:22-23).

Bottom line:

What Jesus did on the cross should hold a special meaning for us. It is a unique kind of giving and like the father of the prodigal son, God continues to give abundantly to us. Let's not keep wasting what he gives us or take his generosity for granted.
