

 GIVE THANKS ***

Thanksgiving Service

WELCOME

We warmly welcome you, if you are worshipping with us for the first time. We believe you've become a member of our church family by God's grace.

Please ensure you speak to the Pastor or one of today's facilitators before you leave.

May God bless you richly (Amen).

VERSE(S) OF THE DAY

He will send troops to pollute the temple and the fortress, and he will stop the daily sacrifices. Then he will set up that "Horrible Thing" that causes destruction. The king will use deceit to win followers from those who are unfaithful to God, but those who remain faithful will do everything possible to oppose him.

Daniel 11:31-32 (CEV)

GROWTH & ADVANCEMENT

Our theme this year is to enlarge and build better (Isalah 54:2-3), and by God's grace, we're trusting that the boundary lines will fall for us in pleasant places (Amen).

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know you could join most of our services online when you are unable to attend? Talk to the technical team or the Pastor to find out how.

THIS IS RCCG BETHEL PARISH, DUE TO THE CURRENT EPIDEMIC. SERVICES WILL REMAIN ONLINE TILL FURTHER NOTICE

PLEASE CONTINUE

Our website is a treasure trove of information, and not only about our focus and mission. You could subscribe to our podcast or listen to past sermons too (<http://rccgbethel.church/sermons/>). This is particularly useful for when you are unable to attend services or for refreshing your recollection as an essential part of your private Bible study.

There's more! Details of events and outreach will almost certainly be available from relevant pages on our website and updated regularly, along with downloadable copies of our Sunday bulletins (<http://rccgbethel.church/category/bulletins/>).

So, why don't you set our homepage as one of your startup page(s) in your browser now? The following instructions for most of the common browsers may help.

Google Chrome

1. Open the browser and the Settings menu (or the three vertical dots to the right of the menu bar).
2. Scroll down and click on Advanced Settings.
3. Select Open a specific page or set of pages under On Startup.
4. Select Set pages and enter or add <http://rccgbethel.church/>.

Mozilla Firefox

1. Open Firefox. Press Alt-T on the keyboard and select Options from the drop-down menu or go to Tools >> Options from the main menu.
2. In the Home section, select Homepage and new windows and Custom URLs... from the field's drop down.
3. Enter or paste the URL: <http://rccgbethel.church/> or click Use Current Page if you are already on our website.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Introduction to the book of Thessalonians

Text: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-3

This book is likely the first book written by Paul to a church started during his second missionary journey. He didn't introduce himself as an Apostle, perhaps because they knew who he was (Acts 17:1-15). Those opposing them reacted to the impact he had on those he met, some revealed in his letters to the Thessalonians.

Here again, Paul assured the Thessalonians he's praying for them, writing on behalf of Silas and Timothy. He also talks about their "work of faith, labour of love and patience." What are the works of faith? When some people told Jesus they want to perform God's work, he told them what he's doing is the work of God (Jn 6:28-30).

It was clear they only want miraculous signs, but any work that advances the Christian journey is a work of faith, including giving people a cup of water in God's name (Matt 10:42) or when even our suffering glorifies God (Jn 9:1-5). It was noted that Paul, Silas and Timothy have "turned the world upside down" (See also Acts 17:6-7 NKJV). A labour of love is similar. It is an act of mercy, done without expecting anything in return. It also attracts others to us, making us more approachable.

One of the most remarkable labour of love is told in the parable of the Good Samaritan (Lk 10: 25-37). It is curious that only the Samaritan, who should by right be an opponent was the only one who helped the victim of robbery. A labour of love is what you do when there's a need and you think it's the right thing to do, even to your enemies (Js 4:17).

Patience is one of the fruit of the spirit and several scriptures encourages us to learn it, pointing out the benefits (Heb 10:35-36; Rom 5:2-5). Later, we will see in the book of Thessalonians that they were all expecting the eminent return of Jesus. This may explain why Paul stresses patience, long-suffering and endurance in several of his letters and ministering.

Bottom line:

As Christians, we should aim to perform our work of faith and labour of love with patience endurance until Jesus comes, because we don't know the hour or the day when Jesus will return.
